Steve's Journey Sessions

I assist people in a shamanic journey into themselves and their highest truth. I facilitate a connection with their higher self which reminds them of the path home, a re-enlightenment to purpose, through Joy and expansion. Along the way, I shamanically help clear out some obstacles in the Emotional, Physical and Mental bodies, which no longer serve them. The bodies are brought into balance and Unity feeling an abundance of self Love. People are also taught access to this portal which allows them to return at will to this place of Wisdom, Light and Peace.

Time is given to site specific work on areas of concern if desired.

The Feather and the Body Sessions

This exquisite experience combines 45 minutes of Steve's normal bodywork session with a 25 minute finale of featherwork and sound healing on the body. Steve incorporates both Peruvian shamanic and tantric use of the feathers and their energy to bring the physical senses into expansion in the higher vibrations, while the soul/mind flies free with the power of the feather.

This unique experience is a delicious treat of healing and liberation.
